Sportsmanship ballots are included in this mailing. ETSA members can vote for the individuals they feel have best exhibited the true spirit of sportsmanship during the 2018 year. You may use the included ballot to vote for male, female, and junior sportsmanship awards. (A list of 2018 members is included.) Please seal all ballots in the envelope provided in this mailing. Please do not use this envelope for your banquet reservations or memberships. The ballot envelope does not have to be mailed separately, you can enclose it in a separate envelope with your reservations, membership, etc. Ballots must be post-marked by January 30. (The date on the ballot is 2019, but should have been 2018. Apparently I have trained myself a little too well in writing 2019.)

ETSA members have the opportunity to tour the UT Veterinary Hospital prior to the banquet. Dr. Snowden will conduct the tour. Everyone is asked to park in the commuter lot at the back of the facility, on the end of the UT Gardens and meet in the Equine/Farm Animal breezeway. The tour will begin at 4 p.m.

One of the items on the agenda is to adopt or reject the new bylaws. The bylaws along with changes are posted on the ETSA web site "Member Business" page. Please take time to review the bylaws so you are aware of what you will be voting on.

NOTE: There will be a Horse Show Committee Meeting at Cissy Mayo's house (7701 Bennington Drive, Knoxville, TN 37909 on Tuesday, February 5 at 6 p.m. Anyone who wishes to serve on the committee is welcome to attend this meeting.
